The Boy in the Woods

Six years have passed since Jake Fisher watched Natalie, the love of his life, marry another man. Six years of hiding a secret that Jake knows will take his life if he dare reveal it.

Jake is a dirty security guard in a big city. What he is not is the right man to be at his ex-wife’s wedding. But he needs money desperately. When he sees his old teacher in the crowd, something compels him to follow her. One look into her eyes tells him that nothing is as it seems. He knows they were once adored by his son, Max, but he never imagined that she could be the one who has been haunting Jake’s dreams.

Now, he needs to find out why she is here, and if it really is his ex-wife, why she has never contacted him. The answers are astonishing and only lead to more questions. Did he ever know his wife at all? And what’s really going on with his son? If anything, Jake is certain of one thing: no one should be allowed to take his son away from him again. For six years, he’s been waiting for the right moment. It’s time to reclaim his son.
